.Its good
:You can add a few sentences saying that Reporty opens more ways for people to connect and interact with close circles of
.trusted (Guardians, etc.) family and friends
And that, I believe, Reporty will have many more domains of use in: TV stations, competing for 'first' reporting from developing events, Jewish(or other) communities, were solidarity and security matters. As well as global enterprises who are caring about their workforce of tens/hundreds of thousands employees, spread all over the world, .including higher risks regions, of which there are too many, these days

If not all this enters the quote, keep it for briefings and make a 'talking points list' for me .as well as for others
